

Bordeaux red wine vintage 2019 : The harvest began mid-September in the earliest ripening areas with the Merlot grapes, then spread to all the vineyards from 23 to 27 September, including Cabernet Franc and Cabernet Sauvignon. 2019 is a high-quality vintage with promising potential. Still young, these red wines are smooth, well-balanced and low in alcohol. Their fine structure guarantees good ageing potential. They also boast a magnificent deep red colour.

Château de Cranne is a 44 hectares family estate stretching over the communes of Donzac, Semens, Loupiac and La Sauve Majeure. Vincent Lacoste took over in 2008. Younger, Vincent was not interested in the vineyard. It is through his studies at the Ecole Supérieure d'Agriculture that his motivation grew to continue the legacy of five generations dedicated to the production of wine. Vincent decided to convert into organic in 2010.

TASTING NOTES

Eyes	Very bright, intense garnet color, characteristic of the merlot grape which is dominant in that wine
Nose	Generous, intense and fruity nose of strawberry, raspberry and blackcurrant.
Mouth	Very good mouthfeel for that wine which is rich but well balanced with a long finish. Tannins are firm but well rounded. Generous and fruity, this wine will develop well.
